QUICK GUIDE

Construction Select

Catering for medium to large scale construction companies, Construction Select provides flexible insurance cover options offering all the key installation and erection, property, liability and speciality covers under one policy. This is supported by our construction specialists within underwriting and claims, as well as our experts in site management, plant and machinery inspection and health and safety regulations.

Our unique modular product

Working with our industry expert underwriters, customers can combine a broad range of covers tailored to the construction industry, with the cover needed to manage their own property risk in one policy. This enables customers to purchase only the cover they need and manage their insurance costs.
