Very important – fraudulent and exaggerated claims

Deliberately exaggerated claims could invalidate your policy cover. Insurance fraud is a crime and liable to prosecution.

The above answers to our questions will be the basis of consideration of your claim. You must ensure that all information is true and correct to the best of your knowledge and belief, and that all material facts have been disclosed. A material fact is one that is likely to influence us in the assessment or acceptance of this claim, or one that is likely to influence our consideration of cover under the terms of your policy.

If you are in any doubt as to whether a fact is material, you must disclose it.

Failure to do this may mean that your policy becomes invalid and a claim payment will not be made.

I/We understand that you may seek information from other insurers to check the answers I/We have provided. This report is made in the bona fide belief that litigation may ensue and to enable solicitors and/or agents to advise and to conduct such litigation in relation thereto.
