Broker training guide

Ready to work in partnership with you

Sharpening expertise, together

We're a Chartered Insurer. An accreditation awarded for professionalism, expertise and commitment to training and development.

We're passionate about nurturing talent and working with our partners to take the skills and expertise in our industry to the next level.

With the Allianz Partners Academy, we've created a high-quality training programme available for our broker partners to blend with and complement their own learning and development initiatives.

Through workshops and programmes, events and digital learning, the Allianz Partners Academy allows brokers to choose from a wide range of relevant topics and formats.

All to join forces to sharpen expertise, together and to navigate an ever-evolving landscape of risks and challenges.

The Allianz Partners Academy

Investing in people and talent across the industry is something that we're hugely passionate about. We believe the Allianz Partners Academy benefits the ongoing professional development and careers of our brokers. Despite these ever-changing times, we're confident that together we can drive forward professionalism and expertise in the industry whilst attracting new talent to the profession."

We believe in the importance of wellbeing. And we see wellbeing and good mental health as key elements to building engaged, resilient and high performing teams.

We're therefore offering our broker partners the opportunity to benefit from our relationship with MHFA England to complete Mental Health First Aider courses and establish a network of Mental Health First Aiders in their business.

The course is designed to help raise awareness of mental illness and recognise various mental health conditions. It will enable participants to help colleagues needing assistance to find the most appropriate support.

Time commitment: 4 x 3 hours.

Delivered virtually by MHFA England, typically over four consecutive days, each session will be three hours long.
